Preface

Edition 1 & 2:
I doubt whether when my wife Jeanette had any idea of the time she would devote to genealogical research when she started a photo-album of old family photographs inherited from her parents, dating back to before 1875.

One photograph had the names of three generations on the back and this prompted her to start digging into the past. She started by using the South African Archives online search facility and was amazed at the amount of data available. Through the www she also made contact with other genealogists, some in other countries such as the Netherlands and Australia and found that all genealogists were very willing to share information. Many phone calls and emails to family members, close and extended, also supplied valuable information.

Jeanette first completed the Kruger, married to Van Manen, research (surnames: Kruger, Retief, Van Manen and Dargon) and published it in 2012 (1st Edition) and again in 2014 (2nd Edition). She recently completed the Clements, married to Buytendag, research (surnames: Clements, Palmer, Turner, Buytendag and Kasselman) and this 2015 publication will be the 1st Edition thereof.

Although there is much information outstanding she considered it desirable to publish what is available, hoping that it would serve as a catalyst to encourage greater interest and thereby hopefully get more information and photos that she could incorporate in a 2nd Edition.

It is worth mentioning that Jeanette had her own training company for eighteen years, specializing in Ventura Publisher and the Corel Graphics Suite. Her knowledge of publishing helped her to layout and publish her research from raw data to publications, both in print as well as PDF versions.

I hope that all readers of this and her previous publication will be inspired to collect and preserve their family history for the sake of their descendants.

Place names / Plekname

In this document place names are used as they were at the appropriate time (<1994, e.g. Cape, Transvaal, Natal, Orange Free State). For recent dates (1994 and after) the current place names are used (e.g. Eastern Cape, Western Cape, Northern Cape, Gauteng, Kwazulu-Natal, Free State, Limpopo, Mpumelanga, North-West). All towns and provinces are in South Africa unless specified as UK or other country.

Numbering / Nummering van geslagte

Progenitors that came to South Africa are numbered “a”. Their children “b”, etc., for the next generations. For each generation the children are numbered 1, 2, 3 etc. Children of daughters are numbered according to the husband’s genealogy, in this document they are only numbered 1, 2, 3 etc., no generation letter as it is not applicable.

Die stamvader wat die land ingekom het, word altyd genommer a, die volgende geslagte b, c ens., met elke geslag se kinders genommer 1, 2, 3, ens., volgens geoortedatum. Vroulike kinders se kinders het slegs numeriese nommers omdat hulle volgens die man se geslagte genommer word.

First known CLEMENTS ancestor

Higgs CLEMENTS. No further details available.

Due to no knowledge of generations before Higgs CLEMENTS he is numbered “a”, although we do not know if he is the Progenitor of this line of the surname CLEMENTS. For Higgs’ descendants this letter “a” is not repeated as it is the same starting point for all generations.

a. Higgs CLEMENTS (no dates available)
× Mary PRETORIUS (no dates available)

Source: South African Archives VAB MHG 26905. DN of daughter Elizabeth Sophia, currently this is the only reference to them, no information on other siblings, if any exists. The original Death Notice is in Afrikaans (see the transcribed Death Notice).

Possible CLEMENTS naming pattern

It looks as if Frederick Charles CLEMENTS (see later in this document), the second son of John James CLEMENTS, was named after his mother’s father, Frederick Charles PALMER, which was often the case in those days. This is an indication that the first son should have been named after the father’s father. Thus we still need to research the first name “Higgs” compared to the names “Clive Hamilton” of John James’s first son (see detail later in this document).

The “Higgs” first name could have been the surname of his mother. Without the previous generation’s detail it cannot be determined if this was the case. If we could locate a DN for either Higgs CLEMENTS or Mary CLEMENTS, née PRETORIUS, or any other documentation, it would help.

Children of Higgs CLEMENTS × Mary PRETORIUS

We have no knowledge of other siblings of Elizabeth Sophia DIEPRAEM, previously CAMPBELL, née CLEMENTS and John James CLEMENTS, but there were other Clements’s births in Middelburg, e.g.

– A Mary Magdalene Frances CLEMENTS (*circa 1868)¹, married to a Joseph Kitchingman NOBLE. Unfortunately her father is only mentioned as “CLEMENTS”, married to a Florence BEEBY, and according to a grandchild she was only married once (further research is needed) and they also do not have a first name for this CLEMENTS, She was also born in Middelburg, Cape.

– There were at least two other John James CLEMENTSes, father and son, from Durban, Natal, the father was also born in Middelburg, Cape. He died in 1947², and his son in 1962³. They could have been extended family. This has to be researched.

b2. John James CLEMENTS 1872.06.19-1937.06.18
His marriages and descendants follow after his Military History.

Military history of John James CLEMENTS, VC

He enlisted at Naauwpoort on 20 October 1899 and was discharged on 15 October 1902.

At the time of earning the Victoria Cross in the Second Boer War (Anglo-Boer War) he was a Corporal in the Rimington Guides. His final rank was Sergeant¹, spelt "Serjeant" during that period.

The Rimington’s Guides were a locally raised unit under Major Michael F.R. Rimington of the 6th (Inniskilling) Dragoons. Rimington had been on special service in South Africa when the war broke out. The unit became known as "Rimington’s Tigers" from the strip of hide on their hats. They were paid off in January 1901 but were reformed as Damant’s Horse under Major F.H. Damant, and they remained active until the end of the war in May 1902. Thus technically Damant was the commanding officer when Clements earned his VC on 24 February 1901. Colonel Rimington described Clements as "South African born, of splendid physique, a good boxer and always ready for a scrap."²³

"This was not Clements’s only courageous deed. According to his superior officers he constantly risked his life while out on scouting work."⁴

Medals of John James CLEMENTS

• Victorian Cross 24 February 1901 (note: medal erroneously engraved 1900)
• Queens SA 1899-1902: eight bars – Belmont, Modder Rivier, Relief of Kimberley, Paardeberg, Driefontein, Johannesburg, Diamond Hill and Wittenbergen
• King’s SA. 1901-1902 two bars – South Africa 1901 and South Africa 1902
• 1914-1915 Star
• British War Medal 1914-1920
• Victory Medal 1914-1919
• King Edward VII Coronation Medal 26 June 1902
• King George VI Coronation Medal 1937

This last medal was automatically awarded to all VC recipients but is not included in his group.

The King George VI medal is not in the bound group, but separate and with a family member. The medal group is on display in the Lord Ashcroft Gallery in the Imperial War Museum, London, by The Michael Ashcroft Trust, the holding institution for the Lord Ashcroft Victoria Cross Collection. He started his collection in 1986 and there is now 145 VC medals in the collection.

See the history of the Victoria Cross and Lord Ashcroft’s book “Victoria Cross Heroes” with the reference to John James on p142-143, and even more information.

John James was selected to attend King Edward’s Coronation, 26 June 1902, in Damant’s Horse Contingent, received his VC on 1 July 1902 and was discharged on his return to South Africa on 15 October 1902.

Major General Bruce Hamilton initiated Clements’ Victoria Cross award, quote:

“I have the honour to forward herewith a recommendation for the award of the Victoria Cross to Corporal Clements, Rimington’s Guides, for an act of valour the particulars of which are stated in the accompanying schedule. I have personally enquired into the particulars of the case from those who were present, and especially from the late Lieut. Harvey who was commanding the party, and whose testimony on such a matter was absolutely reliable. He told me that when he and Clements were wounded there only remained two of his party (Carlyle and Wilson) against five unwounded Boers at close quarters, and that the former would probably have been obliged to surrender had not Clements, with conspicuous courage and devotion, and although dangerously wounded, dashed amongst them and shot three of them with his revolver. The results of Clements’ action was that instead of our party being made prisoners, the Boers themselves surrendered and were brought prisoners to our own camp. I am very strongly of the opinion that this was an act for which the Victoria Cross should be awarded, and I strongly recommend it for the favourable consideration of the Commander in Chief.”

The award of the Victoria Cross, for action near Strijdenburg, South Africa, on 24 February 1901, was published on p.3769 of London Gazette No. 27320, dated 4 June 1901.

The citation reads:

“Rimington’s Guides, Corporal J. J. Clements
On the 24th February, 1900 [sic], near Strijdenburg, when dangerously wounded through the lungs and called upon to surrender, Corporal Clements threw himself into the midst of a party of five Boers, shooting three of them with his revolver, and thereby causing the whole party to surrender to himself and two unwounded men of Rimington’s Guides.”

Note:
The London Gazette incorrectly records the wrong year, which should have been 1901. The mistake was picked up too late for correction on the VC.

John James was invested with the VC by HRH The Prince of Wales at the Inspection of the Colonial Contingents at the Horse Guards Parade on 1 July 1902. Also see caption on the back of the photo in possession of the family.

John James also enlisted in Botha’s Scouts for the German South West Africa Campaign at the beginning of the Great War and served there until the autumn of 1915. For the individual medals of this period see his medal set.

According to the Newcastle Advertiser, Friday, March 21 1980: “... Late in 1932 he had a heart attack after giving evidence in the Court House. Court officials went to his aid and he recovered. He died five years later, on June 18, 1937, and was buried by a pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church with a small contingent of the Royal Natal Carbineers as pall-bearers....”

Another article in the Newcastle Advertiser, Friday, November 23, 1956: “Tombstone on VC’s Grave. The Newcastle branch of the Moths, assisted, if necessary, by all Moth Shellholes in the Northern Districts, have decided to erect a headstone on the grave...” The article also mentions the addresses of two of his daughters at that time: “...Doris A Barlow, Daggafontein and Evelyn F Hodgman of Welgedacht...”

Buitendach/Buytendag Militêre Geskiedenis
Beide uitgebreide BUYTENDAGs en KASSELmans was in die Anglo-Boereoorlog betrokke en sommiges was ook bannelinge en in konsentrasiokampe. Met baie duplisering van name in die uitgebreide geslagte is dit moeilik om die persone uit te sorteer.
