Genealogy Notation

The usual South African numbering scheme, developed by C.C. de Villiers, is followed. The progenitor is numbered [a1]. His children are numbered, in birth order, [b1], [b2], [b3], etc. The children of any male of the second generation are then [c1], [c2], [c3], etc. Each person inherits the numbers of their direct male ancestors. So, for example [a1b2c6] and [a1b4c1] would be first cousins with a common paternal grandfather.

In a slight variation from the usual system, the tenth child is A (not 10), the eleventh is B, and so on. Also, 0 (zero) is used as a place holder; [a1b0] is the same as [a1].

This system is useful to number the descendants of a particular male person who bear the same family name. It is difficult to read, when the full notation for later generations is used. For example, I (Keith Meintjes) am [a1b4c1d3eAf9g8h1i2]. In the indexes and elsewhere I omit the letters denoting generations, rather using position. In this compact notation, I am [1413A 981 2], which I find much easier to read.

There are 21 branches of the family: 21 fifth-generation males have descendants in the sixth and subsequent generations. The main section of this document is broken into these 21 branches. As a final variant of the notation, the branch number is included instead of the first five generations. Thus, I am also [08:981 2].

Introduction

Johann Meintjes originally published his family history and register of family members, "Meintjes 1675 - 1971", in 1972. It is a significant work, documenting about 2300 descendants of the progenitor, Johan Heinrich Meintjes van den Berg, and over 1200 marriages.

In one obvious respect, this register is out of date: One or two new generations of the family have been born in the intervening thirty years. In addition, I have concluded that Johann's original register is substantially incomplete. Over the years, I have had numerous enquiries about family members who are not included. About a third of search results (for Meintjes) at the South African Archives refer to individuals not in the register. No doubt, the genealogy of many Meintjes individuals could not be established, though I do believe that information on "Coloured" (a South African term for persons of mixed race) branches of the family was deliberately excluded from the original work.

I was prompted to create an electronic genealogy data base from the original book, which is a mimeograph of poor quality. I then decided to publish a reformatted version of the original book. So, this is an edited version of "Meintjes 1675 - 1971". It makes Johann's work available, in electronic form and online, to family members and genealogists. I have included some new material, but I have chosen not to make substantial additions. My intent is that this can be a starting point for additional research, where contributors can be given credit, and references and sources can be properly documented.

Included from the original are Johann's Introduction, his Historical Overview, and the Family Register. The other sections, including the indexes, are my contribution.

The cover was designed by my son, James.

Technical assistance was provided by Gil Brueckner.

Finally I wish to thank those who reviewed earlier versions of this book, and who made many suggestions to improve the content and layout.

Foreword (from the first edition)

When asked the reason for compiling a family tree, one finds that [it] is possibly one of the most difficult questions to answer.

I have personally always been interested in the past history of my family. Twenty years ago I started tracing my own line back to the first Meintjes who came to South Africa. At that stage, though such a project seemed an insuperably difficult task, the challenge itself proved irresistible. Many pleasant hours, days and years were spent delving into the records of the State Archives and the Archives of various churches in the four provinces of South Africa. There may be many persons who share a similar curiosity concerning the lives and times of their forbears. To any such kindred spirits may I suggest that research of this nature, though long and arduous proves eventually that the goal is surely worth the effort involved. Further, the co-operation one receives from an increasing number of members of one's family serves to diminish the laborious aspect of such a task and fills the compiler with renewed zest and encouragement.

In this connection I would like to express my thanks to John and Margaret Meintjes of Northcliff, Johannesburg for their invaluable assistance in furnishing information concerning not only their own branch of the family but also in contacting many other family members. To them and all other members of the family I am grateful for details which form part of this register.

The lineage of the Meintjes family is, however, by no means complete. Many names and dates do not appear as it was impossible to gain full information of all the various families. In this connection I would like to mention two families which had perforce to be omitted from this family tree. These are the descendants of the following two persons: (a) Hendrik Adriaan, born 4th March, 1830, possibly in the Albany district, and married to Elsie Sophia Johanna Els. His descendants today live in the Eastern part of the Cape Province. (b) Robert Stephanus, born 21st August, 1875 at Aberdeen and married to Petronella Maria Aletta Crous. He later farmed in the Griquaastad district and it is understood that his descendants are still resident in that area. In order that the history of these two branches of the family be not lost to posterity any further information concerning them would be welcomed, as well as any further details relating to other branches of the family not mentioned herein.

I trust that this humble contribution might stimulate an interest in the Meintjes ancestry and engender a sense of pride in one of the many very old families which formed part of the building of a nation in our relatively young country.

Historical Survey (from the first edition)

The earliest known reference to the [Meintjes] Family is the record of the marriage at Stellenbosch on 14 January, 1709 of Hendrik Meijntjes van den Berg from Munsterland in Germany, to Christina Bastiaanz, the 21 year old widow of Heinrich Gozelke. The Founder of the Family was born in 1675 and evidently arrived at the Cape during 1708, as his name does not until 1709 appear in the annual census records. Hendrik was from the time of his arrival at the Cape until 1711 in the employ of Heinrich Oswald Eckstein, a wine-farmer of Stellenbosch. On 25th February, 1712 he was granted the farm Brandvalley at Rodezand and on 24th October, 1712 was allotted grazing for his stock at Klipkraal, beyond the Berg River. He was subsequently granted other farms, moving frequently from one district to another. According to the census records, he was registered in the following districts: Stellenbosch 1712 - 1714, 1717 - 1721 and 1727 to 1729, Cape Town 1722 - 1726 and Drakenstein 1715, 1716 and 1730 - 1735. It is interesting to note that seven of his eight children were not christened in the district where he resided. Hendrik was finally granted the farm Burgersdrif in the Drakenstein district on 10 April, 1731 and here he evidently stayed until his return to Cape Town, as no trace of later grants could be found. He spent the last years of his life in poverty and on 5th May, 1749 it was recorded in the minutes of the Cape Church Council that he was given a church grant as he was old and unable to earn a living. His eldest daughter re-married in 1752 and on 4th June, 1753 it was recorded in the Church Council minutes that she offered to care for him. He stayed with her and her husband Johann Hasse from Braunschweig in Cape Town until his death at age 87 years on 17th October, 1762.

Hendrik was the father of eight children, five daughters and three sons. His eldest son, Francis, died young and the youngest, Pieter, never married, and died on his farm "Snoey gelegen over de Buffels Valley aan de Bosjemansberg" in 1811 at the age of 82. The second son, Johannes, also known as Jan and Johan, married Jacoba van Wijk, was the father of seven children and is also the ancestor of all members of the Meintjes family. [See below on Pieter's children.] On 10th August, 1746 he was granted his first farm, Twee Fonteine, situated in the Koue Bokkeveld in the district of Waveren (the present district of Ceres). In the year 1757 he moved to the farms Vondeling and Welgemoed in the Roggeveld in the same district where he died on 9th January, 1764 at the age of 45. His wife remained on the farm until her three surviving sons moved away and settled on their farms. She died in Cape Town on 5th September, 1788.

Hendrik, the eldest son of Johannes, on 22nd March, 1744 was granted the farm Rietfontyn, situated beyond the Sneeuwberg (between the towns Graaff-Reinet and Cradock), where his uncle Pieter was farming on a neighbouring farm, Geduld. Although he acquired further farms in this area in the years 1775 and 1784, his family remained in the "Land van Waveren" until he took them to the eastern frontier in 1790 or 1791.

Hendrik was a Heemraad of Graaff-Reinet until 1795. A number of Hendrik's descendants distinguished themselves in various fields. His grandson Jacobus Johannes (born 14 March, 1800) was one of the first Magistrates to be appointed by Lord Charles Somerset. He married the sister of Sir Andries Stockenström. After several years on the Government offices at Graaff-Reinet, he was, at the age of 24 transferred to Somerset East as Civil Commissioner and Resident Magistrate and from 1830 to 1860 held a similar position at Beaufort West. Stephanus Jacobus (born 19th February 1819) a great-grandson of Hendrik, left Graaff-Reinet in about 1862 to settle in the Transvaal as an Attorney, and later as Advocate of the Supreme Court. He purchased the farm Arcadia, which he divided into erven. The hill on the farm, "Meintjeskop", was named after him. Jacobus Johannes (born 23rd December, 1810) was elected member of the Cape Legislative Assembly during 1854 in the first elections after the grant of Representative Government to the Cape. His cousin, Johannes Jacobus (born 18th May, 1830) was the first Registrar of the Transvaal and was appointed as such in 1866. Another descendant, Stephanus Jacobus (born 11th January, 1840) made history by being the first member of the Family to become a medical practitioner. He practised at Aberdeen, Willowmore, Adelaide and Uitenhage. Another distinguished descendant was Laurens (born 9th June, 1868), who on 15th August, 1893 won the World Championship in cycle racing in Chicago.

The second son, Johannes Petrus farmed at Stellenbosch and moved to the Graaff-Reinet district more or less the same time as his brother. He settled on the farm "Rietvalley, gelegen achter de Sneeuwberg", near his brother.

The youngest brother, Willem was the last to leave the Western Cape. After farming in what is to-day known as the Tulbach, Ceres and Worcester districts, he followed his elder brothers between 1808 and 1810 to the eastern frontier and took over the farm Rietvalley from his brother Johannes Petrus. Here he stayed until his death on 23rd December, 1836.

Willem's two sons, after their father's death, left the Cape Colony under Pieter Uys, and settled in Natal until the British annexation thereof. In 1842 they both moved to Groot Marico and in 1863 a section of the family settled in the districts of Winburg and Kroonstad.

Pieter and his nephews Hendrik, Johannes Petrus and Willem thus all originally settled in the same area, i.e. at Sneeuwberg, between the present Graaff-Reinet and Cradock. From here the Family started spreading in different directions. The descendants of Hendrik moved nearer to Graaff-Reinet, and also further south to what to-day is known as the districts of Somerset East and Pearston. Others moved to Hanover and Middelburg. The two sons of Johannes Petrus moved in directly opposite directions, the elder joining the Trek of Gerrit Maritz, eventually to settle in Western Transvaal, and the younger one and his descendants settled in the districts of Aberdeen and Willowmore. As stated above, Willem's sons left the Cape Colony with the Great Trek.

A further general exodus from Graaff-Reinet and the neighbouring districts took place towards the middle of the nineteenth century and various members of the Family spread to Pretoria, Molteno, Kimberley, Fauresmith, Beaufort West and a number of other districts, to such an extent that not a single member of the Family is left in the Graaff-Reinet district today.

Probably as a result of the German pronunciation of the Family name, different spellings appeared in the old Church Records. At the time of marriage of our progenitor, the entry read "Henrik Jan zn. Myntie", and with the christening of his children the surname was spelt Metje, Mantie, Mijntjes, Meijntges and Meijntgens. The earliest record of the correct spelling was found in the minutes of the Cape Church Council, dated 5th May, 1749, 7th August, 1752, 6th November, 1752 and 4th June, 1753, where he was referred to as "Hendrik Meijntjes van den Berg". His daughter Anna Elizabeth and her husband Johann Valentin Eckard from Magdeburg in their will dated 28th July, 1755 referred to him as "Hendrik Meijntjes van den Berg in Munsterland". According to the marriage registers his three daughters used the surname "van den Berg", while his son Johannes used the full name "Meijntjes van den Berg" at the time of his marriage. This double name appeared in church records for approximately 170 years, at Graaff-Reinet, Cradock, Kroonstad and Winburg, until certain branches of the Family gradually dropped the "van den Berg", and later omitted the "j" in Meijntjes. The least said about the modern day spelling "Meintjies", the better.

The Children of [a1b8] Pieter Meintjes

The Meintjes stamvader (progenitor) had eight children, three sons and five daughters. The eldest son, Francis, died young. The second son, Johannes "is the ancestor of all members of the Meintjes", according to Johann Meintjes [see page 3].

The third son, Pieter, was born 16.10.1729, and died 1811. He never married.

The will of Pieter Meijntjes van den Berg is in the Cape archives (MOOC vol.7/1/62, ref. 47). It is written in Dutch, the following is my own summary of part of the contents:

On 7 February 1796, Pieter Meijntjes van den Berg appeared before Samuel Veit Oertel (the Secretary of Graaff-Reinet) to make his last Will and Testament. He made over the sum of one thousand Cape Gulden to the Church, on the condition his seven natural children born out of wedlock were to be baptised and admitted into the Christian faith. The children's names were:

- [c1] Hendrik Meijntjes van den Berg (Elias, 27), * about 1768.
- [c2] Johannes Meijntjes (Joseph, 21), * about 1774, ≈ Graaff-Reinet 14.5.1805.
- [c3] Christina Catrina (Katryn, 18), * about 1777, ≈ Graaff-Reinet 7.10.1798.
- [c4] Anna Margaretha (Griet, 16), * about 1779, ≈ Graaff-Reinet 7.10.1798.
- [c5] Maria Elisabeth (Maria, 12), * about 1783, ≈ Graaff-Reinet 12.4.1800.
- [c6] Pieter Meyntjes (Pieter, 6), * about 1789.
- [c7] Sanna (Geertruyd, 1), * about 1794.

For example, the third child was Katryn, age 18. Her father requested that she be baptised as Christina Catrina. From the stated age, she was born about 1777. So far, I have found four of the baptisms in the Graaff-Reinet registers.

In 1989, Robert Ross (the son of Catherine Maria Meintjes and Dr. Joseph James Ross of Fauresmith.) corresponded with Johann Meintjes, who was then living in Windhoek. Johann sent him a copy of the first page of Pieter Meintjes' will. In his letter, Johann says: "His consort's name is not mentioned. The Dutch Reformed Church at Graaff-Reinet baptised them all. I traced all the entries in the Church records. These are my coloured relatives, almost all living in the Eastern Cape."

On Names and Spelling

There is no such thing as the "correct" spelling of a name, particularly in genealogy. Variations abound, and they change with time. Indeed, there is often not a "correct" name for a particular person.

de Villiers / Pama gives the progenitor's name as: "Jan Hendrik (Johan Heinrich) Meintjes, v. den Berg, Munsterland". There is indeed a town named Berg(e), north of the city of Munster in Germany. Another book ("De Afkomst Der Boeren") says he was Jan Hendrik Meijntjes from "Geertruidenberg", and gives his nationality as "Nederlands". There is no evidence of any connection to the Scottish family, Menzies. The weight of the evidence leads me to believe the progenitor was from Germany. There are no known records of his origins in Europe.

Searches of the index to the South African Archives (in May, 2004) yield the following numbers of hits: Mijntjes (1), Meyntjies (2), Myntjes (13), Meijntjes (26), Meyntjes (75), Meintjies (1723), and Meintjes (3043). But, with time, the predominant spelling is losing ground: For documents after 1950, the results are Meintjes (573), and Meintjies (745).

Around 1800, the surname Meyntjes van den Berg(h) was commonly used. I suspect that some family members dropped the Meintjes and used van den Berg, just as some dropped the van den Berg and used Meintjes.

Meintjes Family Branches

The chart on the next page shows all the male family members of the first six generations who have descendants. There are 21 members of the fifth generation who have descendants in the sixth (and subsequent) generations. Purely as an aid to organization, I have grouped the sixth and later generations into these 21 family branches. The progenitor of each branch is shown in the following table:
