

CONTENTS

Foreword	15
Register of illustrations.....	17
Register of maps	18
Register of tables	18
Abbreviations	19
INTRODUCTION.....	21
Family names	21
Swiss origins of arrivals	22
Location of Swiss at the Cape	23
Dutch money and its English equivalent	23
Symbols used	24
1. COMPANY SERVANTS AND SETTLERS 1652-1795	25
1.1 SYNOPSIS	25
1.1.1 Establishment of the settlement at the Cape	25
1.1.2 The voyage to the Cape.....	27
Happy to arrive in Table Bay	28
1.1.3 Company servants	28
1.1.4 Swiss labour migration to the Netherlands	31
1.1.5 Recruitment	35
1.1.6 In Company service	36
General discussion	37
At the hospital	37
Members of the garrison	39
Beutler's expedition	40
On duty at outposts	40
The station at Simon's Town	42
Men serving in other capacities	42
Company servants on loan to burghers	44
Pension and retirement	44
1.1.7 Free Men	45
Company servants had no civil rights	46
Farmers and farm labourers	47
Tradesmen, teachers and businessmen	48
1.1.8 Free settlers	49
1.1.9 Crime and punishment	51
Robben Island	51
1.1.10 Their names live on	54
1.2 ARRIVALS IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER	57
1.2.1 Arrivals in the 17th Century	57

	In the early days life at the cape was tough	57
	A Swiss who had many brushes with the law	60
	The crime which cost Jacob Meyer five ears hard labour	62
	A success story	64
	It pays to apologise	65
	The success story continued	66
	Claas Loubser's house burgled	67
	The success story continued	68
	A long walk to nowhere	70
	The first Swiss woman at the Cape	72
	A Swiss amongst the Huguenots	72
	A shoemaker's trade described	74
	Dangerous talk	74
	A farmer in the Franschhoek Valley	76
	A Huguenot settler born in transit at Geneva	76
	Unruly drinking party	78
	A refined gentleman, but he had no socks	79
	Michiel Ley - Another success story	81
	A forceful character	83
	Breach of contract severely punished	87
1.2.2	Arrivals 1700-1749	87
	Revenge may be sweet, but can leave a bitter aftertaste	88
	All male descendants of Jacob Marik wiped out in second smallpox epidemic	89
	The first smallpox epidemic at the Cape and worse	92
	Jan Vorster built the first church at Paarl	94
	An early schoolteacher at Paarl	97
	A shopkeeper and a blacksmith	103
	A father of many sons	106
	A burgher who returned to Switzerland	109
	Unlucky draw brings death to Jacob Boery	110
	Not clever enough	111
1.2.3	Arrivals 1750-1779	113
	A Major works as farm labourer	115
	A foundation member of the first Masonic Lodge at the Cape ..	117
	Thirteen years gaoler	120
	A household described	122
	The governor's coachman	125
	He found happy retirement on the mountain above Simon's Town	126
	An executioner who worked with Swiss precision	130
	The first Swiss cook at the Cape	131
	Mutiny during the outward voyage severely punished	136
	A Swiss appointed assistant magistrate at Graaff-Reinet	138

	A useless subject is shipped back to Europe	140
	An early watchmaker	141
	Swiss blood in the Knysna Forest	143
	Stop-over at the Cape to give Birth	144
	Eighteen years Company's chief wagon-maker at the Cape	144
	Not found guilty but confined on Robben Island until able to prove his innocence	146
	The state funeral of Oloff Martini Bergh as described in the Governor's Journal on Thursday, 24 November 1785	147
1.2.4	Arrivals 1780-1795	151
	The tragic story of Susanna Nicolet	151
	A lovable person	154
	Father and son serve 60 Years as organists at Grootekerk	156
	He kept his bride waiting too long and she found another	157
	A carpenter at Twenty-Four Rivers	159
	A person whom they call a teacher	161
	Favours in high places	162
	A good teacher	165
	Apothecary with its own medicinal garden	165
	Sometimes it is better to travel hopefully than to arrive	166
2.	ARRIVALS DURING THE TRANSITION TO BRITISH COLONIAL RULE.....	169
2.1	SYNOPSIS	169
2.1.1	The Regiment Meuron at the Cape	169
	A regimental courtmartial	171
2.1.2	The first British Occupation of the Cape	173
	The Swiss at the Cape in 1800	174
2.1.3	Swiss at the Cape during Batavian Rule	176
2.1.4	The Cape under British Colonial Rule	177
2.2	MEMBERS OF THE REGIMENT MEURON.....	179
2.2.1	Alphabetical list of the names of officers and men of known Swiss origin stationed at the Cape	179
2.2.2	Reports on members at the Cape (in alphabetical order)	181
	A tale of disappointed expectations	181
	A brave soldier and man of property	182
	Captain Kiburg and the battle for Muizenberg which never took place in 1795	186
	A wanted man in Holland ?	191
2.3	ARRIVALS DURING THE FIRST BRITISH OCCUPATION.....	193
	Lady Anne Barnard's cook	193

	Christiaan Orffer seeks the wide open spaces and lands in a prison cell	194
2.4	ARRIVALS DURING THE BATAVIAN RULE	197
	Narrative of a Gentleman	199
	Jeremie Auguste Rouviere, watchmaker, actor and silversmith	201
	The Werdmuller Family.....	203
2.5	ARRIVALS DURING THE SECOND BRITISH OCCUPATION UNTIL 1819	205
	Prussian army officer serves Dutch Reformed Church.....	205
	The first free press in South Africa financed by a Swiss	207
	Louis Henry Meurant.....	208
	The father of a Voortrekker	209
3.	SWISS IMMIGRATION DURING THE COLONIAL PERIOD 1820-1945	213
3.1	SYNOPSIS.....	213
3.1.1	Colonial	213
3.1.2	Missionary Activity	214
	Missions of the Reformed Churches	214
	Missions of the Roman Catholic Church.....	215
3.1.3	Very few new Swiss arrived 1820-1867.....	217
3.1.4	The years of diamond and gold discoveries 1868-1899	221
3.1.5	The Birth of Kimberley	226
3.1.6	Swiss and the South African (Anglo-Boer) War, 1899-1902	227
3.1.7	Years of economic growth, 1900-1945	227
3.2	ARRIVALS IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER 1820-1945.....	235
3.2.1	Swiss amongst the 1820 Settlers	235
3.2.2	Arrivals 1821-1856.....	237
	An early artist.....	239
	A pork butcher makes good	240
	A teacher's tragedy.....	242
3.2.3	Swiss members of the British - German Legion (BGL)	245
	Register of Swiss members of the BGL	246
	A Swiss makes good in a town where the earth does not rotate.....	247
	A clerk all his life.....	250
3.2.4	Arrivals 1858-1867.....	251
	Two sons for the price of ten sheep each.....	251
	A family of teachers.....	253
	A sad tale.....	254
	Photographs are for ever.....	255
	A Swiss in Namaqualand	257

3.2.5	The religious communities at Wellington and Twenty-Four Rivers, 1868-1930's	259
	Arrivals in alphabetical sequence.....	266
3.2.6	Arrivals 1869-1877.....	279
	Sister helps brother to evade priesthood	280
	A family with six children seeks better future in South Africa	281
3.2.7	Major influx of state aided emigrants 1877/1878.....	284
	In detail: Arrivals in Cape Town on Wandrahm 1877.03.16.....	286
	Arrivals in Cape Town on Edinburgh Castle , 1877.06.12	286
	Arrivals in Cape Town on Pedraza 1877.07.19	292
	Africa is too far away	294
	Arrivals at East London on Adele 1877.08.22.....	295
	A brave soldier	297
	Arrivals at East London on Sophie 1877.11.04	300
	Arrivals in Cape Town on Uranus , 1877.12.06	301
	Fate led him to Africa	302
	Arrivals in Cape Town on Papa June 1877	302
	Arrivals in Cape Town on Papa June 1877 and thence to East London on Asiatic	304
	Early years were tough.....	304
	Arrivals in Cape Town on Saturnus , 1878.01.03	306
	Arrivals in Cape Town on La Rochelle 1878.09.24	307
	Argentina is better	308
3.2.8	Arrivals 1878-1898	310
	A successful businessman and first Swiss Consul in Cape Town ..	310
	Thirty-five years on Robben Island	312
	A globetrotter in Cape Town	315
	A co-founder of the Conservatorium of Music at Stellenbosch... ..	323
3.2.9	Hotel Mount Nelson	325
	Swiss engaged by the Mount Nelson 1898-1945.....	327
	He had famous clients	340
3.2.10	Michaud Brothers, Watchmakers and Jewellers, East London	342
	Swiss owners and employees of Michaud Brothers	343
	Cape Town's Father Time	345
3.2.11	Arrivals 1899-1921	348
	Two Swiss serving in South African War	349
	Charles Bothner's obituary in the Cape Argus of 1943.02.20 ..	353
	A physician serves King and Country	357
3.2.12	The Bally Shoe Factory	361
	Swiss employees in chronological sequence of arrival	364
	The workers who arrived in November	364
	The workers who arrived in 1922 and 1923	366
	Arrivals for Bally's between 1924-1931	367
	Arrivals 1930-32 after the new factory was built	369

	Arrivals for Bally's and other shoe factories after 1932	372
3.2.13	Other Arrivals 1922-1939	373
	A lover of nature	375
	A marine biologist of renown	379
	The discovery of the Coelacanth	380
	Walter Mittelholzer, a pioneer airman	383
	A queen's host	387
	Pilot killed in aeroplane crash in East London	391
	The unlucky number thirteen brings misfortune to another pilot.....	392
	A lucky call	405
3.2.14	The National Portland Cement Company (NPC)	406
	Swiss employees in chronological order	406
3.2.15	Arrivals during World War II	408
4.	IMMIGRATION 1946-1971.....	411
4.1	NEW ARRIVALS	411
4.2	MAJOR INDUSTRIAL INVESTMENTS	415
4.3	SWISS IMMIGRATION THROUGH THE CENTURIES.....	417
5	TRADE BETWEEN SOUTH AFRICA AND SWITZERLAND.....	419
5.1	THE GROWTH OF TRADE UNTIL 1971.....	419
5.2	TRADE RELATIONS DURING APARTHEID YEARS	423
6.	THE MISSIONS.....	428
6.1	THE MISSIONS OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES	431
6.1.1	The Moravian Mission	431
6.1.2	The Rhenish Mission Society	436
	Johann Jacob Lutz	439
6.1.3	The Dutch Reformed Mission Church	440
6.2	THE MISSIONS OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH	442
6.2.1	Admission of the Roman Catholic Church to South Africa	442
6.2.2	The Trappists of Mariannhill.....	443
6.2.3	The Oblate Sisters and Brothers of St Frances de Sales	449
	The early Swiss Oblates	454
6.2.4	The Sisters of the Holy Cross of Menzingen	460
	List of the Swiss Sisters in alphabetical sequence	463

6.2.5	The King William's Town Dominican Congregation	471
	Swiss Sisters in chronological sequence	475
6.2.6	The Pallottines	479
6.2.7	The Ursuline Sisters of Brig	481

Sources

I	Books, Pamphlets and Theses	485
II	Contributions to Journals, Newspapers and Series	489
III	Published Documents	490
IV	Unpublished Sources	491

Index 1	: Swiss or possible Swiss persons other than missionaries.....	501
Index 2	: Places of origin in Switzerland of persons other than missionaries.	518
Index 3	: Swiss missionaries	523
Index 4	: Places of origin in Switzerland of missionaries.....	526